The spring 2007 issue will focus on author-screenwriter Margaret Millar (Edgar® winner, Beast in View; MWA Grand Master; wife of author Ross Macdonald).

For the issue, the guest editor would particularly like to see articles that:

- illustrate Millar's influence on the development of the suspense novel (perhaps with comparisons to Patricia Highsmith and Dorothy B. Hughes),
- show the influence of Millar's environmental concerns on her settings,
- analyze Millar's prescient awareness of social trends (e.g., as demonstrated in How Like an Angel, one of the first suspense novels to deal seriously with cult behavior), or
- highlight Millar's treatment of issues (e.g., racial attitudes toward Hispanics in Southern California)

Submission Details

All articles in languages other than English must be accompanied by a short paragraph describing their contents. Submissions should include a 50-word abstract and be between 15 to 20 double-spaced, typed pages (approximately 3,300 to 6,000 words) in Microsoft Word or WordPerfect with minimal formatting. Manuscripts should follow the MLA Style Manual by Joseph Gibaldi (2nd ed., 1998), including parenthetical citations in text and an alphabetized list of Works Cited. Please confirm that manuscripts have been submitted solely to CLUES.
